Soldier's Body Is Recovered

Pfc. Gary Balsley Perished in Flood

The body of Pfc. Gary L. Balsley, 20, of Salem, missing in a Cleveland flood district since Jan. 18, was found Wednesday afternoon at 3:30.

The body of the former Salem High student was found under three inches of ice in a plowed field, just a few hundred yards from where he was swept off an army rescue truck in the Cleveland suburb of Valley View.

Pfc. Balsley, due to be discharged in March, had volunteered to assist in flood rescue operations in Valley View. Mr. and Mrs. Paul D. Balsley, of 1297 Eastview Dr., are the father and step-mother of the youth. His mother resides in Kissimmee, Fla.

The youth's body was found by Capt. Ramey Salyer, battery commander of the Garfield Heights-Independence Nike site, and Donald L. Davidson of Independence, an experienced body recovery expert.

The men of the Nike site never gave up the search since Balsley was first reported missing. Capt. Robert J. Welsh, commander of the Cleveland Army Air Defense group aided ground rescue operations by conducting a helicopter search.

The victim's parents were visited last Saturday by Capt. Salyer and Capt. Thomas Asuma, base chaplain.

A launcher crewman at the Nike site, Pfc. Balsley enlisted Feb. 8, 1956. He received his basic training at Fort Jackson, S.C., prior to his assignment to the Cleveland

Ohio Lagging In Treatment Of Unemployed

Union, Management Groups Team Up To Support SUB

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's legal block in the path of supplemental unemployment benefits (SUB) puts it a step behind neighboring industrial states in the treatment of the unemployed.

This was the story told to the Ohio Senate Commerce and Labor Committee Wednesday night by representatives of both labor and management.

Representatives of steel, rubber and auto industries teamed with AFL-CIO spokesmen in behalf of a bill authorizing simultaneous payments of SUB and state unemployment benefits. It was the first hearing on the bill. Opponents will be heard next week.

Industry after industry sent spokesmen before the committee, expressing "complete accord" with the purposes of the SUB bill sponsored by Senator Majority Leader Frank W. King of Toledo and Sen. Charles J. Carney of Youngstown.

Seven steel companies—Armco, Inland, Jones & Laughlin, Republic, U. S., Wheeling, and Youngstown Sheet and Tube—urged approval of SUB which has been in their contracts with the United Steelworkers Union for several years.

A spokesman for Goodyear Tire and Rubber Co. and other rubber firms also expressed support for the SUB principle but asked an amendment to the bill limiting combination SUB-state payments to 65 per cent of a worker's normal take-home pay.

General Motors Corp. also submitted a brief in behalf of SUB.

Man Swerves Car To Avoid Striking Dog, Is Hospitalized

A 26-year-old East Rochester man is in fair condition today in the Alliance City Hospital with injuries received Wednesday night at 8:30 when the car he was driving swerved off a utility pole at the intersection of Johnson and Buck Roads, just north of Knox Township School.

The victim, Raymond Brenner, received lacerations about the face and scalp.

Merle Hardy, Knox Township constable, said Brenner attempted to avoid hitting a stray dog when his car skidded on the icy road into the pole. The impact threw Brenner through the car windshield.

Hardy said electricity was cut off for four hours and some 35 to 40 immediate area homes were affected.

James Dawson, an Ohio Edison foreman, and seven other workmen finally restored the power through the 7,000-volt line.

Hardy said traffic was blocked for two and one-half hours after the mishap.

Mr. Vaughan, assistant vice president of the Electric Furnace Co., has been Council president three terms. Now completing his second consecutive term, he served his first term in 1950-51.

Boy Slays Four In His Family

Spanking Led Youth To Use Shotgun

MORAVIA, N.Y. (AP) — A series of family arguments and the spanking of a 16-year-old boy led the boy to kill four members of his family Wednesday night, state police said.

Troopers said John Jayne, a husky teen-ager, killed his father, Willis, 66; his mother, Amber, 55; a brother, Willard, 19; and a sister, Elizabeth Ann, 13, with a shotgun.

John, 5 feet 9 and 155 pounds, was charged with first-degree murder. He entered a mandatory innocent plea before Peace Justice Richard Pearce in Cayuga County Court at Auburn in central New York, early today.

Inspector William Driscoll said John, a pupil at Moravia High School, told him he had shot his family because of "an accumulation of family arguments."

Police said John told them his parents had spanked him, and that he felt he was too big to be spanked.

Three of the bodies were found in the house. The father was found slumped in a barn.

President Bids For Party Unity In Congress

Ike, 13 Republican Leaders Breakfast At White House

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower bid for party unity in Congress at a White House breakfast today with key Republican senators.

Over bacon and ham and eggs, Eisenhower and 13 GOP senate members "threw the ball back and forth and discussed everything, including the weather." Sen. George Aiken of Vermont reported afterward.

Sen. Thomas Kuchel of California called it a meeting of good-fellowship, and Sen. Everett M. Dirksen of Illinois said he believes the get-together was well worth while. Dirksen is the Republican leader in the Senate, and Kuchel is his assistant.

The White House said in advance of the breakfast that it was arranged for a discussion of the administration's legislative program. But several of the senators who attended reported there was little talk of serious business.

Although the senators represented all shades of party opinion, Aiken said that he observed no disagreement at the breakfast.

Sen. Francis Case of South Dakota reported that he and his colleagues had a purely informal discussion of current topics with Eisenhower.

The breakfast is one of three meetings Eisenhower plans with congressional Republicans. The others, Friday and next Tuesday, will be with House members.

He told a White House news conference Wednesday that, as a middle roader, he is resigned to taking criticism from both sides. His statement was taken as indicating he won't reply to attack

New Sheppard Appeal Made

Evidence Suppressed, Killer's Counsel Says

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Counsel for Dr. Samuel H. Sheppard, Cleveland wife slayer serving a life term in Ohio penitentiary, insisted today that the Ohio Supreme Court should consider new evidence the prosecution assertedly suppressed.

Mrs. Gertrude Mahon of Cleveland, appearing for the attorney general of Ohio, claimed that "no evidence was concealed, unless by the defense."

She contended that such matters could not properly be considered by the high court in a habeas corpus action filed in a last-ditch effort to free Sheppard.

William J. Corrigan of Cleveland counsel for Sheppard, said he filed the habeas corpus action to strengthen an expected appeal to federal courts. The Ohio and U.S. Supreme Courts previously turned down Sheppard's appeal from his second degree murder conviction in the slaying of his wife Marilyn in their Bay Village home west of Cleveland July 4, 1954.

Twelve students were on the Southern Local School District bus which had just started to take them home. None was injured.

Chief Executive Says Program Too Expensive

Cites Large Outlay Of Federal Funds, Big Crop Surpluses

WASHINGTON (AP)—President Eisenhower today renewed with fresh emphasis his call for lower price supports to cut costs of federal farm aid and encourage greater sales.

In a special message to Congress, he said price support programs are "excessively expensive" and crop control programs don't control.

Cites Huge Surpluses

Citing the big accumulation of surpluses and the large outlays of federal funds on farm programs, the message said "the need to reduce the incentives for excess production has been explicit" in the three special messages on agriculture which he has previously sent.

Eisenhower said expenditures under present programs go largely to a relatively few big farmers.

Dispatched to Congress along with the message was a memorandum from Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Taft Benson giving specific details regarding operation of present programs—particularly those affecting wheat, tobacco and rice—and outlining possible changes in farm laws.

Cautions Against Proposals

Eisenhower took notice of Democratic proposals for changes in farm programs and cautioned against adopting some of them.

"Difficulties of the present program should not drive us to programs which would involve us in even greater trouble," he said.

"I refer to direct payment programs, which could soon make virtually all farm people dependent, for a large share of their income."

After Price returned to county jail under $2,000 bond imposed by the East Liverpool municipal court, he confessed to the four other county burglaries: Potters Lumber Co. in Calcutta Feb. 27; Skyview and Super Drive-In Theaters, April 21; and Super 30 Drive-In May 14. All occurred in 1958.

It is not known how many burglary indictments will be sought against Price, Prosecutor G. William Brokaw said this morning.

Civil Rights Bill Is Introduced

School Integration Object of Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Paul H. Douglas (D-Ill.) and 14 other senators joined today to introduce a sweeping civil rights bill aimed at insuring racially integrated schooling.

The measure is the same bill Douglas sponsored without success in the last session of Congress. It would authorize 200 million dollars of federal funds for a five-year program of grants to speed integration.

In a Senate speech prepared for its introduction, Douglas called the bill meaningful and constructive, but said "the results of our recent efforts to curb the filibuster have undoubtedly dimmed the outlook for the passage of such a measure."

Douglas led a campaign this year to cut from 68 to 50 the number of senatorial votes required to choke off a filibuster—a method Southerners have frequently used to kill civil rights legislation. Instead, the Senate changed its rule to require a vote of two-thirds of the senators present and voting.

Under grant provisions of the bill, funds would be available to local communities that wish to comply with the Supreme Court's school integration order in cases where, as in Georgia and Virginia, the state threatens to cut off funds or close the schools.

The grant provision would also authorize funds for school facilities in areas where the chief problem preventing integration is the lack of adequate buildings or other physical equipment. Help also would be provided for hiring additional teachers if needed.

In addition to the grants 2½ million dollars a year for five years would be provided for such things as surveys and conferences on integration.

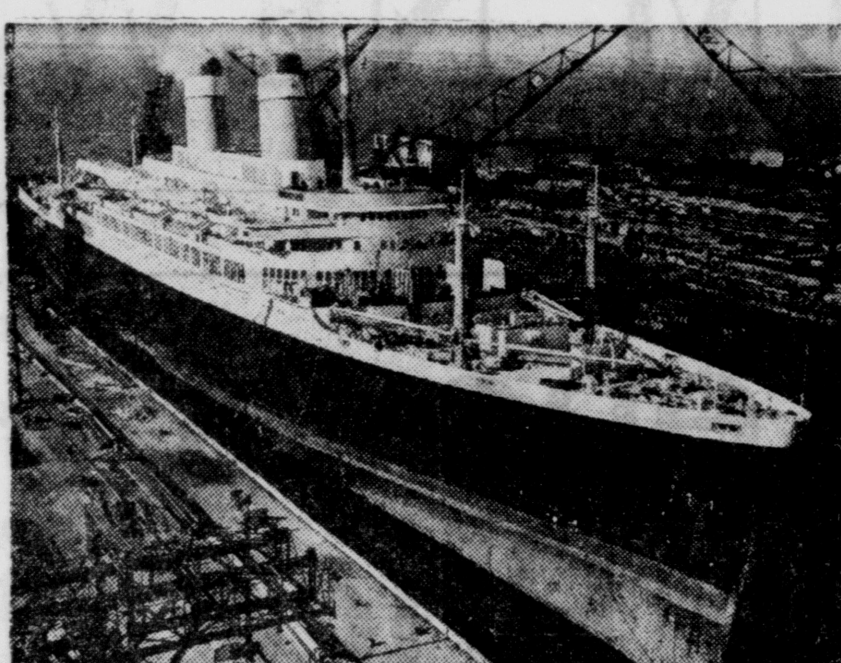

A clause similar to one stripped from the 1957 civil rights measure would authorize the attorney general to start civil actions against those who deprive others of equal rights of account of race, color, religion or national origin.

The measure would authorize: 1. Filing compliance actions in school cases in connection with approved integration plans when the secretary of welfare certifies that all efforts to secure compliance through conciliation, assistance and otherwise have failed.

2. Preventive action against state or local officials and others acting under state law in cases denying equal protection. But the attorney general would be permitted

Ohio Pastors End Annual Convention

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Ohio's pastors concluded their 40th annual convention here on a warning from one of the nation's leading magazine editors that a war which could virtually depopulate the earth is now a possibility.

This macabre note came from Norman Cousins, editor of the Saturday Review, as the nearly 2,000 pastors closed out their final session Wednesday night.

"A war that would incinerate a billion human beings and deform the rest is now a possibility," Cousins told them.

"I do not know of a single scientist who does not believe that already we have in the United States, Russia and England the nuclear weapons with which to make the whole earth uninhabitable."

"In one nuclear bomb already tested," Cousins continued, "there is the power of a thousand airplanes with block-busters sent on bombing raid each night for 14 years."

"Against such a war there is no defense, except peace."

Problem of Aged TB Patients Aired

In a recent survey it was found that the average age of TB patients had gone up 10 years in the past five, Elliott said.

In explaining the extension of the program, it was emphasized that Ohio's 88 county tuberculosis association may choose their own time of entry into this wider field.

Throttling Down the Inflation Engine

The economic mystery of the day is inflation in the midst of plenty. But it is ceasing to be a mystery, if it ever was.

It was more likely a delicate subject that people were reluctant to talk about because they might hurt someone's feelings.

Inflation in the midst of plenty has been caused by relentless pressure for higher wage rates and higher operating costs on the part of labor unions, the most powerful economic force in the United States.

President Eisenhower's economic report finally has come to grips with the mystery. The delicate subject is not being avoided any longer.

After he had referred to the responsibility of consumers and businessmen for maintaining the value of dollars, the President had this to say about organized labor:

"Leaders of labor unions have a particularly critical role to play, in view of the great power lodged in their hands. Their economic actions must reflect awareness that the only road to greater material well-being for the nation lies in the fullest realization of our productivity potential, and that stability of prices is an essential condition of sustainable economic growth. The terms of agreements reached between labor and management in wage and related matters will have a critical bearing on our success in attaining a high level of economic growth with stable prices."

THIS IS WHAT commentators mean when they talk wistfully about "labor statesmanship." Leaders of unions have become a kind of economic legislature for the United States, with power to impose their terms on the whole country.

GOP Elephant Has No Lease on Life

The bonds of unity that the Republican party needs so urgently proved to be barbed wire when the Republican national committee met in Des Moines.

Members of the committee seemed to be more interested in cutting up President Eisenhower for the sake of a headline than in healing up wounds made by the 1952 nominating convention. That was the impression they made. If it was accidental, just another example of Republican ineptness in putting its best foot forward when the public is watching, that is just as damaging as the impression that Republicans only fight each other these days — not Democrats.

Even the President's obviously well intended message calling on the party not to let itself become a "hibernating elephant" that wakes up only at election time was turned into an excuse to snipe at White House leadership. It's hard to know sometime whether dissident Republicans are mad at Dwight Eisenhower for not being vigorous enough or for being too vigorous about matters that offend them.

IN THE LONG RUN, it won't matter, Mr. Eisenhower, as he pointed out in connection with his budget-balancing position, is not a candidate for anything. His public career is ending. Unlike Harry Truman, his predecessor, he will have no inclination to keep a finger in every pie. He will be a former

Bingo Can't Be Legalized Piecemeal

Gov. DiSalle has made it known he can see no merit in local permission for charity bingo in Ohio—and there can be no dispute about that. If bingo ever is going to be legalized in this state, it should be legalized statewide.

It is the fact that gambling is constitutionally illegal in Ohio that has been giving gamblers fits — and what is constitutionally illegal could not be legalized piecemeal with any show of logic.

The other idea the governor has about bingo is that it should not be legalized unless the Greedy Guses and Fast-Buck Franks can be kept out of it. It should be for the benefit of nonprofit organizations, and the organizations should be the real thing.

If this could be done, it would make charity bingo almost respectable — not entirely, but almost. There is a thought for Ohioans in this

Once Over

"Moscow announces Russia has caught up with the U.S. in milk production." — News item.

Behold the Soviets and how They're out with the contented cow! Now Bossie, seeing pails appear, Observes the call, "Get happy, dear!" The cows in Russia, it did seem, Were lagging with the milk and cream; Their milk production didn't shine — But now they take the party line.

II
She grazed contentedly enough On Russian field or plain or bluff Or so she thought, it is a fact, Until Khrushchev got in the act; Her moo had been a dismal sound In giving Joe a runaround; To him she said, "I lack the knack." But Nicky said, "You're holding back."

III
He snapped, "Unless you now come through, Mongolia will soon see you; Or, if you fail your quota, kid, You may wind up where Zhukov did. I want you to hit milk marks new — And don't give me that no-can-do — A lot of milk you'd better give, Assuming that you want to live."

IV
"Behind each cow there stands a plan; Behind her, too, stands Mikoyan." Nikita added in tones cool . . . The cow gave in. She was no FOOL.

They are not restrained by antitrust laws. If they could have had their way — if they could have it now — they would not be restrained by even so feeble a law as the Taft-Hartley Act.

They show their authority and win their support by bargaining for and winning ever-higher wage rates and ever - more - labor able working conditions. But to the extent that they do this without regard to the productivity of their members and the cost that must be borne by enterprise, they merely downgrade the buying power of the dollar.

There are notable exceptions, where labor leaders have tried to be economic statesmen, instead of opportunists. But there have not been enough exceptions to throttle down the inflation engine that organized labor has become in the U.S. economy.

UNTIL LABOR leaders and their followers understand that wages, being the preponderant element in costs, determine the buying power of money, wage inflation will be the source of general inflation that will wipe out not only the wages but all savings made from wages.

Perhaps now that the official economic report of the nation has come to grips with the "delicate subject," it can be talked about realistically in other places.

The labor movement has grown up. It can make or break the economy. It can take the value out of money, or it can increase the value of money. It needs economic statesmanship. The American people, including those who belong to unions, have a right to expect it, in return for the extraordinary power they have bestowed on unions.

president in the style of Herbert Hoover, who let the politicians take care of the politicking when he left Washington.

But the problems of the Republican politicians went right on after Mr. Hoover, who had been regarded as an interloper by Republican insiders, returned to Palo Alto. They still had the responsibility for keeping the party alive, and it is a matter of record that they weren't doing a good job at it until circumstances gave them a break in 1952.

Whether the late Sen. Taft could have swept the country the way Gen. Eisenhower swept it is useless speculation. In all probability, the reaction from the Truman "mess" was strong enough to elect any Republican candidate in 1952. But Eisenhower, not Taft, was elected.

keep the Republican elephant from hibernating. The elephant has no lease on life; his keepers must keep him alive.

There may be some satisfaction in making snide remarks about Mr. Eisenhower and wishing he would give the party more leadership, but Mr. Eisenhower isn't running for office. He is not the elephant's keeper.

The United States needs two strong parties. It needs the two-party system. In all likelihood it will have a two-party system.

However, if the Republican national committee can't keep its elephant awake, there could be some other beast that would rise up and do battle every November with the donkey.

connection. It concerns a "noble experiment" now going on in New York and New Jersey, where the people who wanted bingo finally caused it to be legalized under laws they claim will keep pocket-liners and underworld leeches at a safe distance.

If Ohioans voted to legalize charity bingo next November, the General Assembly, which would be responsible for setting up the regulations, will know where baddies in binomads New York and New Jersey found the loopholes to squirm through. It should be possible to set up a state law in Ohio that would keep them at a safe distance.

It always has been our notion that bingo would be of interest only to genteel old ladies and strawberry festival managers if this ever happened, but that could be a misconception of what makes bingo popular.

If the derby hat style returns there will have to be higher auto roofs or lower bonnets.

Most laughable is a highway sign on the new Connecticut thruway. It reads: "Crossing Median Divider Prohibited." The legislator has a bill to require more simple language. Signs and symbols are loused up all over but nowhere more so than in Nutmeg State. "Median Divider," says the Connecticut highway chief, means the center grass section separating lines of traffic. But if that message is clear, why not "Nourishment Depot Within Optical Detection" instead of "Lunchroom Ahead"? Why not "Enhance Caution Tendency" instead of "Slow"?

YALE SENIORS who issued calendar with 31 days for February rate cheers not knocks. Yale has always stood for fair play and February has never had it until these students gave it a break. February is the month of George Washington, Abe Lincoln and Ben Franklin. We urge that it get proper recognition and that on February 22 the Whiffenpoof Song be blended into the Washington ceremonies. On Lincoln's birthday why not "Boo-la Boole" as an encore to "Battle Hymn of the Republic"? Friends of ours have switched his kid from Cambridge to New Haven, demanding, "What's Harvard ever done for February?"

It's Chilly All Over!

Articles of Faith

By RAYMOND MOLEY

has also made this suggestion to the President.

THE PRESIDENT himself has stated several times what he conceives to be the articles of faith which should characterize the Republican party. In a sentence he expressed it only last week. He said that the party should be dedicated to the principles on which the nation and later the Republican party were founded and should apply those ideas to the problems of today.

But, as anyone can see, this is a generality which lacks specific meaning that could provide a Republican candidate with something that would differentiate his views from those of his Democratic opponents.

The party, not the President, must face the battles of 1960 and beyond. Whatever the party's faith may be must be embedded in every candidate and every candidate must be prepared to fight for it. To be specific, I have suggested that there should be convened a meeting of the state chairmen, national committeemen and women, Republican governors, and members of both houses of Congress.

These meetings should be briefed by memoranda drawn up by group and individuals, not all of whom need be party officers or elected officials.

Then party leaders should get down to work on a specific and thought-provoking statement or platform. This should not be a job for a day or two. It should take a week or even more.

THEN EVERY YEAR this meeting should be repeated to consider additions or amendments prompted by the issues that arise as time goes on.

Of all antiquated, incompetent party practice, that of writing a platform in the heat and confusion of a quadrennial national convention is the most ridiculous.

My suggestion has proof of its effectiveness in the annual conferences of the three major parties in Britain. There, after briefing, discussion and deliberation, the party creeds are formed. These are morally binding on all candidates for Parliament. Also, since parliamentary leaders among all the other party leaders participate in the conferences, this agreed-upon statement of party faith is morally binding upon the representatives of the parties in Parliament.

Never was such a method so needed in the Republican party. For although in the days of such strong Presidents as T. R. Wilson, and F. D. R. parties were able to follow the leadership of the White House implicitly, the situation is quite different now.

President Eisenhower is in the fog end of his term. Also he has, despite his great qualities, neither the inclination, the aptitude, the disposition, nor the experience needed for powerful party leadership.

It is possible to create a party creed which sharply differentiates it from its Democratic-Liberal opposition. This creed the party should make for itself. It will require some labor but it is essential if the elephant is to overcome its afflictions.

Dictatorship Trend

By DAVID LAWRENCE

No Political Group Should Have Indefinite Grip

The "dictatorship amendment"—as the proposal to remove all limits from the tenure of a president is now being called — hasn't much chance as yet to be passed by Congress. But it illustrates a significant and dangerous tendency—the desire of a political group to perpetuate itself in office through the use of governmental machinery.

David Lawrence

On the surface, the proposed amendment—which would repeal the present constitutional provision limiting a president to two terms—appears to remove a discrimination because, as President Eisenhower said in an offhand remark at a press conference, any citizen should be eligible at any time to the presidency.

But the reasons for the present limitation had little to do with the right of some individual citizen to be a candidate. Rather, the purpose was to prevent any political group or clique from getting a permanent or at least indefinite hold on the White House and the executive branch of the government.

Thus, the patronage and favors which an incumbent administration can bestow are so far-reaching in an electorate, where tens of billions of dollars a year are being spent by the federal government, that it would be easier now than ever before to get a stranglehold on local political organizations and to align pressure groups behind a continuing administration.

IT SEEMS ODD, of course, to read that a Democratic party congressman who sponsors the amendment is terribly sorry that Mr. Eisenhower is what is called a "lame duck" president. The lament is that Mr. Eisenhower cannot wield White House power effectively because he is not permitted to be a candidate to succeed himself.

Just why any Democrat should be worried over the fact that Mr. Eisenhower is supposedly losing influence in his second term isn't too clear. For logically the present constitutional amendment should be working in favor of the Democratic party, since Mr. Eisenhower, it is claimed, can't be politically as strong as he might have been without the third-term prohibition. Theoretically therefore, the present provision is actually helping to elect a Democrat president in 1960.

Digging a bit deeper into the mystery, it would seem that the Democratic party, which has become the majority party, has much to gain by lifting the ban on presidential tenure and giving the chief executive an indefinite lease on the White House subject only to one election every four years.

If a dictatorship were to arise in America, it could come out of the tremendous power derived by a president from the right to continuous office.

This correspondent has always been opposed to any limitation of presidential tenure but only when it is also provided that the people may at any time remove a president or the Congress which would elect him.

This is known as the parliamentary system, which affords the people a chance to keep a good president but to turn one out of office at any time if he isn't satisfactory.

THE FIXING of a definite date for a presidential election means that political power can be concentrated over a four-year period and the electorate can be confused by a multiplicity of issues at the end of the four years.

Under a system, however whereby an election can be held at any time, the people can focus on a single issue and decide for themselves whether they want a given policy continued or discontinued.

The current proposal—which would give a president the right to succeed himself for as many terms as desired and would require an election only at a fixed date every four years—would permit political dictatorship. This is one reason why the conservatives in both parties in Congress will fight it. As a matter of fact, many states have adopted the single term for governors in order to rid themselves of boss rule and the monopoly of a single political organization.

LEADERSHIP cannot be limited by the Constitution. If President Eisenhower should decide to go to the people on any issue which he felt was of a critical nature, he could mobilize public opinion more quickly today than if he were a candidate to succeed himself. For the American people would say that his thinking is not influenced by third-term ambitions and that he is politically disinterested.

All he talk nowadays about the weakening of a president's power in his second term is either a political tactic designed to hurt the Republican position or else a means of expressing disapproval because the incumbent has not taken as firm a stand as some people want him to take on particular issues.

A president can be powerful if his view on a specific problem of government happens to be sound and a correct reflection of the will of the people.

Stalin's Comeback

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON (AP)—The memory of Stalin is getting a favorable revival in the Soviet Union.

Three years ago at the Communist party's congress Nikita S. Khrushchev denounced the old dictator as a tyrant and murderer. At the 21st party congress Tuesday Khrushchev reversed himself and paid tribute to Stalin for having made possible Soviet progress from a backward state to a great power.

Why? What's happened in the three years to justify the switch? It was expedient for Khrushchev to do what he did in 1956. Then he wanted to replace the scowling Stalin-image of the Soviet Union, which was the only one the world knew, with the image of a jolly, friendly land.

In three years, under Khrushchev's prodding, the Soviet Union has made a lot of progress in inching in on neighboring countries, with economic help and other influences.

But something else has happened, too: the Soviets have made such evident progress in science that the world has to respect them for their progress and their power.

Khrushchev can afford now to be more charitable to the memory of the old tyrant whose bloody regime spanned not only the Soviet Union's most formative years but most of its existence from the 1917 revolution until now.

There's another point: historically Khrushchev would look a little ridiculous trying to make a hobby of downgrading Stalin for, no matter how the dictator was despised, it was he who made the Soviets present progress possible.

He did it at terrible cost in human lives: not only through his purges and his police terror but by keeping the masses on an extremely low economic level while Soviet resources were pumped into industrial development.

At this price progress—toward making the U.S.S.R. an industrial and scientific giant—was achieved. That much can never be taken away from Stalin. It would be foolish for Khrushchev or anyone else to deny Stalin's accomplishments.

But perhaps the most interesting thing that has developed out of the nation taken over by Khrushchev is that its achievements have been so dazzling the world has grown cautious about dismissing too lightly Soviet claims for the future.

For example: Khrushchev is launching the Soviet Union on a 7-year plan of economic development. There was a time, back in the 1930's, when Soviet plans did not seem particularly impressive, since the economy was on a low level.

But since the world's realization of Soviet development—particularly in missiles—there is bound to be a hesitancy about taking lightly Khrushchev's claims for the future.

He knows it, of course, and it's one reason why, perhaps, he can afford to look as relaxed and self-confident as he does.

Easy, Fun To Make Own Hats

MAKE IT YOURSELF — Sally Victor, noted milliner, has designed this hat, to be made by home seamstresses from a standard pattern, in fabrics for day or evening.

The biggest thrill any home seamstress can have (in the sewing field, that is) is to make her first successful hat.

Housedresses and children's clothes are all in the day's work, but a flattering hat is a creation. Most women hesitate to try this project, believing that there is a special magic in the milliner's art. But almost every woman yearns to try.

Recognizing this universal urge, Sally Victor, noted milliner whose custom-designed hats sell at from $50 up, has designed for a major pattern company a hat plan for home sewing fans. It has only three pattern pieces and requires a mere ¾ yard of fabric.

Local sewing center experts suggest you make several hats from the same pattern, in different fabrics and colors. The deep-fitting cloche is perfect protection against winter winds when made in corduroy, wool or velvet. It's equally appropriate for evening or theater wear, when made in pale satin.

The woman who likes the ensemble idea will find it simple to buy a little extra fabric when selecting material for a new dress. The hat may be trimmed with a small bow of matching or contrasting fabric, a scrap of mink or a flower or a jeweled pin.

Saxon Lanes Bowling Alley Ready For Saturday Opening

The Transylvania Saxon Society of Salem, Branch 19, will open its new "Saxon Lanes," a 12-lane bowling alley at 188 Railroad St., Saturday at 4 p.m.

The building, situated immediately east of the Saxon club, was purchased from William Sponseller in 1957 and the former Salem Lumber Co. building has been completely remodeled inside and outside.

Latest bowling features include high frequency lighting, underground ball returns, automatic pin-spotters, along with heating and air-conditioning.

THE SAXON LANES are connected to the Saxon Club by an enclosed walkway.

The lanes themselves house a workroom, meeting room, men's and ladies' locker rooms and a lounge area. Future plans call for the installation of a snack bar. The floor inside the Lanes is of vinyl plastic and there are a total of 20 different pastel colors represented in the interior color scheme.

The interior walls are of concrete block while the attendant's counter, where shoes and score sheets are kept, is a glass show case.

There is a two-way conversation loud speaker system connecting the attendant's counter and the pin-spotter mechanic.

The interior as a whole is a modern one with a slanted ceiling and wooden paneling. There are refreshment dispensers plus a nursery and meeting room.

The outside of the building is brick.

THE AUTOMATIC pinspotter machines are equipped with an Instructo-Mat which will enable a bowler to roll a "shadow ball." Both experienced and beginning bowlers thus have a chance of getting the feel of the respective lanes. One impressive innovation at the Saxon Lanes is that the National Anthem is played prior to the starting of each league's matches. All the lights are turned out and a spot light is shone on the American flag.

Mayor Harold D. Smith will officially open the lanes at a ribbon cutting ceremony at 4.

A feature of the grand opening will be a bowling match between Salem's Paul Shone and a prominent Chicago bowler, Bill Bunetta.

At 7:30 p.m. a five-man bowling team from Canton, made up of legions between the ages of 15 and 20, and whose team average is 920, will bowl a five-man team from Salem as determined by Saxon Lanes manager John Hendron. One of the Canton bowlers Paul Akerman, carries a 180 average but bowls with two artificial arms.

Plans for the Saxon Lanes were first formulated in 1957 when a six-man committee investigated the possibility of building a bowling alley.

The group was composed of Bill Pauline Sr., George Ulrich, Rudy Bodendorfer, William Holzinger, Ralph Gang and Art Tontsch.

MR. ULRICH, president of the Saxon Club appointed the following board of directors to handle the affairs of the bowling lanes:

Mr. Pauline, president; Frank Diehl, secretary; Andrew Ulrich, assistant secretary-treasurer. Matt Klein, Michael Schwartz, Andrew Klein, Fred Theiss Gus Schuster, Gang, Michael Stumperth Holzinger, John Spack, Matt Drotteff, Maurice Sechler Walter Ulrich and Randall Bieber.

The Russell Riley Construction Co. of Alliance was the general contractor for the building. Work was started in late 1957.

The manager of the lanes will be John Hendron while the pin-spotter mechanic will be Joe Vogelhuber.

Embezzler Sentenced To 2-14 Years In Jail

DAYTON Ohio (AP) — Daniel Omer Tobias has been sentenced to prison for 2-14 years after admitting he financed his expensive antique collection with nearly $372,000 in embezzled money.

The graying, 58-year-old Piqua bachelor was accused of depositing checks of Hobart Manufacturing Co., Troy, into his personal bank account in New York over a three-year period. He had worked in the firm's export department as a clerk for 38 years.

Tobias was sentenced Wednesday in Miami County Common Pleas Court at Troy to 2-14 years in Ohio Penitentiary on five state counts of larceny by trick.

He was then brought to U.S. District Court here where he drew a concurrent three-year term on federal charges of causing falsely obtained checks to be transported across state lines.

He pleaded guilty to both state and federal charges.

Guarding Your Health

By Dr. EDWIN P. JORDAN

Rheumatoid Arthritis Is A Challenge

The most serious and puzzling of the diseases involving the joints is called rheumatoid arthritis.

This disease is responsible for untold suffering and enormous economic loss. Treatment is by no means satisfactory, though increasingly good results are being obtained. Fortunately, a considerable number of those afflicted recover anyway.

The disease begins first in the delicate lining around the joints known as the synovial membrane. This membrane becomes inflamed and thickened and fluid accumulates inside the joint cavities. In most instances the swelling is slight at first and the pain and stiffness are relatively mild.

THE JOINTS most likely to be involved are the wrists, middle joints of the fingers, ankles and knees. Once a joint is affected it is likely to remain involved for some time. The disease does not skip around from joint to joint, as in rheumatic fever.

As time goes on, other joint tissues become involved. It is possible for the cartilage between the joints to be destroyed, leaving a joint which is no longer movable. A single specific cause for rheumatoid arthritis has not been discovered. Such information would be most helpful, but it does not seem to be just around the corner.

Since rheumatoid arthritis is a chronic, long-lasting disease, emphasis should be placed on the long-term treatment.

A BASIC PROGRAM should include at least eight items: Psychological adjustment, a balance between rest and activity, diet and bowel management, correction of anemia, cautious removal of centers of infection, measures aimed at relief of pain, corrective and postural exercises, and prevention and correction of deformity.

Some victims of early rheumatoid arthritis often respond well to transfusions of ordinary fresh blood. Some appear to obtain favorable effects from carefully administered injections of gold and this method of treatment is again being favored by many.

A small number improve with a change of environment to a dry, warm climate. Most obtain temporary good results from cortisone or its relatives, but often these bring undesirable side effect and their good results are usually temporary.

Gradually, more and more is being learned about rheumatoid arthritis. Eventually, I am confident, the knowledge will be gained by which most victims of this dreadful disease can be treated successfully.

Big Battle Is Shaping Up On Kennedy Labor Measure

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. John F. Kennedy (D Mass) said Thursday the key fight over his labor control bill will come on a floor effort to strip from it all provisions affecting the Taft-Hartley Law.

He declined, in talking with a reporter, to predict how this might come out at this early stage of the proceedings.

The Labor subcommittee which Kennedy heads continues its public hearings on the legislation today. Witnesses will be Prof. Archibald Cox of Harvard University, who helped draft the Kennedy bill, and Godfrey Schmidt of Fordham University.

Other senators supporting the Kennedy bill said they think the Senate floor vote on knocking out the Taft-Hartley changes would be very close.

These sources said privately that most Republican senators and many Southern Democrats probably would support such a move. Several of the provisions also are in the Eisenhower administration bill introduced Wednesday, but that measure also includes other proposed changes strongly opposed by labor.

The AFL-CIO made it clear Wednesday that it would strongly oppose cutting Taft-Hartley changes from the Kennedy bill.

Three of the Taft-Hartley changes in Kennedy's bill are strongly desired by labor. These would:

1. Knock from Taft-Hartley a provision under which dismissed strikers are not permitted to vote in a bargaining election. As it is now, only their replacements vote.

2. Permit a building contractor to enter an agreement with a union without waiting for a bargaining election.

3. Direct the National Labor Relations Board to take full jurisdiction of all federal cases and not permit states to handle them where the state law differs from the federal statute.

Ohio

to meet the relief crisis cleared the Legislature Wednesday.

The Senate passed and sent to Disalle for signature bills to:

Appropriate 10 1/2 millions for regular poor relief for the rest of the fiscal year which ends June 20.

Appropriate $200,000 for Ohio National Guard pay for the flood emergency.

Appropriate $100,000 for the state's share of a survey to determine the cause of last week's Ohio flood and to seek a way to prevent future floods.

The three-million-dollar bill for direct flood relief is being held in House committee until it is determined whether the American Red Cross or the state is going to foot the bill.

Also clearing the Senate Wednesday and on its way to the governor's desk was an emergency bill raising the salary of the state superintendent of insurance from $10,220 to $14,000 a year. Disalle has designated Edward Stowell of Toledo for the post. He will be appointed officially as soon as the bill is signed.

One of the top bills introduced Wednesday was one by Sen. Robert R. Shaw (R-Franklin) to re-establish movie censorship in Ohio under the Commerce Department.

Others included measures to: Require all Ohio motorists to carry liability insurance.

Require motorists to stop for loading or unloading school buses inside municipalities as well as in rural areas.

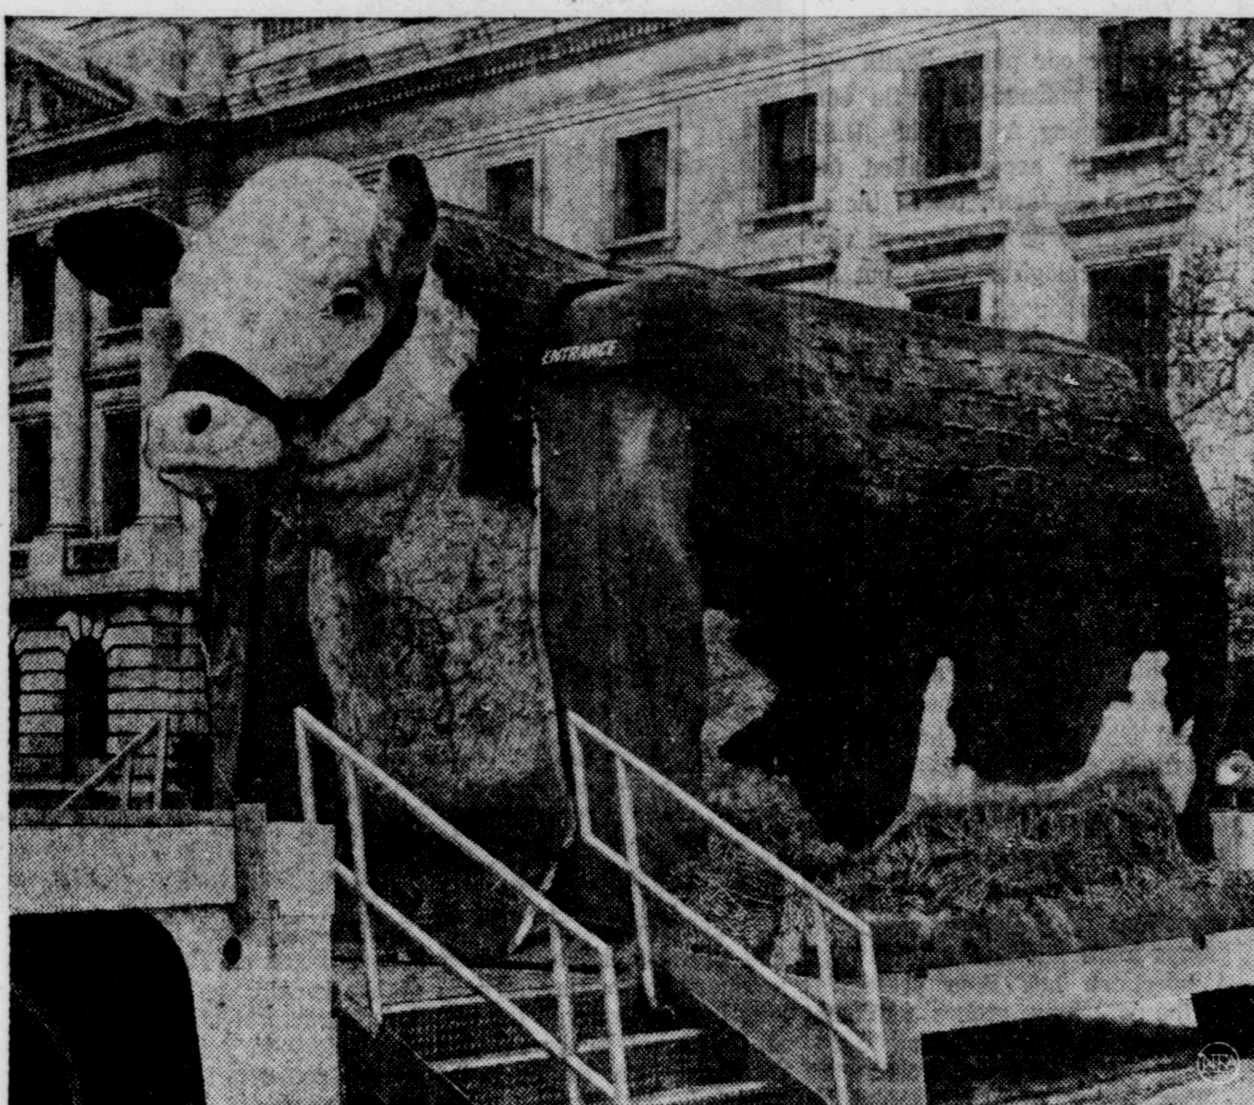

Reduce from 60 per cent to a simple majority the vote required to pass a school levy at a special or primary election.

Permit mayor's courts to retain jurisdiction over moving violations on state highways within municipal limits.

Lift the ban on sale of intoxicants on special election days and change the hours of such ban on primary and general election days from 6 a.m. to 7:20 p.m. to 6:30 a.m. to 6:30 p.m.—the hours the polls are open.

THREATENS LISBON WOMAN
LISBON — Gerald Boring, 40, of Coronette Motel on Rt. 30, south of Lisbon, was placed on a peace bond after he admitted making threatening remarks verbally and in writing against Mrs. Florence Vulcan of Lisbon.

County Judge James L. MacDonald released Boring after he promised to cease bothering Mrs. Vulcan and henceforth be of good behavior.

SHADES OF PAUL BUNYON'S "BABE" — There's more to this huge replica of a Hereford steer than meets the eye. Named "The Champ," the 19-foot-long plastic steer has been featured in several national cattle shows and exhibitions. Inside, displays illustrate how the vital organs of the real animal convert feed into beef and how a cow makes milk. So lifelike is the exhibit that the steer's body gives off the sound of his heart beat. On loan to the Agriculture Dept., "The Champ" is being sent to Europe for display at trade fairs to promote the sales of U.S. farm products abroad.

Jockey

Oklahoma Medical School, said: "He probably will sleep sounder than ever before in his life."

Tripp, with radio station WMGM, has not been the only disc jockey staying awake around the clock.

In Jacksonville, Fla., Dave Hunter of Radio Station WZRO—who said he had started two hours ahead of Tripp—today was continuing his marathon. Hunter also had been under medical supervision.

Hunter, 23, is pressing on toward his new goal of 9 days, 9 hours, 9 minutes and 9 seconds, which would reach at 6:09 tonight.

Tripp was studied closely by researchers from five institutions. Shortly after he had finished his 200 waking hours he was taken across the street to the Astor Hotel. He will remain there for several days for doctors to make additional tests. While he is asleep, brain measurements will be taken with an electro-encephalograph.

Dr. West said the team had gathered "a volume of data" on Tripp that might require weeks or months to digest. West said the findings will be offered to medical journals.

Railroad Depot Bandit Held to Grand Jury

Wayne L. Starr, 26, of Philadelphia, wanted for holdups in Salem and Beaver Falls and a car theft at Sewickley, was transferred on Wednesday afternoon to the county jail at Lisbon.

Starr was bound over to the grand jury Monday at East Liverpool on a charge of carrying a concealed weapon. He was nabbed after wrecking a car on St. Clair Ave. in East Liverpool Sunday night.

The defendant confessed a number of burglaries in the district, including a $27 hold-up at the Pennsylvania Railroad station in Salem Jan. 20.

Health, School Nurses View Movies on Heart

LISBON — Eighteen Columbiana County public health and school nurses attended the monthly work shop held Wednesday afternoon in health department offices in the Court House.

"Your Heart and How It Works," "The Circulatory System," "Congenital Heart - Heart Surgery," "Take It Easy," and "Cardiac Housewives" were the films shown to the group.

Mrs. Annie Gruber of Hanoverton and Mrs. Martha Fallow, United Local school nurse, were chairmen of the meeting.

Fire At Kenmar Co. Plant Is Extinguished

EAST PALESTINE — Fire of undetermined origin broke out this morning at 6:45 at the Kenmar Manufacturing Co., causing slight damage in the firm's chair assembly department.

Company officials said the fire started when an electrical heating unit used to heat plastic became overheated. The only damage resulted from water dispersed by an automatic sprinkler system.

Firemen were summoned by the workmen reporting for the daily 7 a.m. to 3 p.m. shift. The fire was extinguished, however, by the time firemen arrived.

Round Table Session Held by School Men

LISBON — Twenty Columbiana County school administrators attended the roundtable held Wednesday evening at Wick Hotel.

Dr. Joseph F. Swartz head of the department of education at the Youngstown University, spoke on testing and guidance for the schools.

Ralph Myers, principal at Fairfield School, conducted the meeting and a question and answer period followed Dr. Swartz's talk.

PLAN RECORD HOP

LISBON — Vern Sevy, WKBN disc jockey, will be a guest at a record hop Saturday evening in the Lisbon High School gymnasium.

The hop is being sponsored by the "Students' Voice" staff of the school. Dancing will be from 8 to 11 p.m. and will feature a jitterbug contest.

come, upon annual appropriations from the federal Treasury.

"I refer also to various multiple price programs, which would tax the American consumer so as to permit sale for feed and export at lower prices."

In general, Eisenhower's recommendations would make no drastic changes in present programs—only allow the Agriculture Department more flexibility in setting price supports for products required to be supported by the government. Under such authority lower supports — and hence lower government outlays—would be expected to follow.

The Miracles of Medicine

Hospitals, Doctors Provide Improved Care of Patients

By DON DUNHAM
NEA Special Correspondent
(Last of Three Dispatches)
What has the phenomenal progress in medicine and surgery meant to you and me as patients? The best answer, perhaps is the sentence that opened this series: "We have added 20 years to our life expectancy since the turn of the century." About five years of this has been in the last decade. We now have more than 6,800 hospitals, a gain of nearly 10 per cent in the last 10 years. And where 16,821,000 patients were treated in 1948, 22,993,000 were admitted last year, a rise of 36 per cent. And 123,000,000 persons have hospital insurance. Those having surgical insurance rose from 36,000,000 to 111,000,000 in 10 years and those with medical insurance from 12,000,000 to 74,000,000. Catastrophic insurance started only 10 years ago, now has 15,000,000 customers.

MOST OF OUR larger hospitals and many small ones today have labor rooms for expectant mothers, recovery rooms and constant care rooms for patients undergoing major surgery.

The average American consults a doctor twice as often as he did 30 years ago, or five or six times a year.

One of our most fantastic gains has been in maternal health. Childbirth is almost safer than walking across the street today. We also have made great gains in saving our newborn.

Our work with prematures is a great life-saver. With moderate oxygen, humidity and temperature, great gains have been made.

FORMERLY many infants died due to RH blood factor complications. This is the rather rare situation when infant and mother have competitive blood relationships. Gradually withdrawing the blood from the infant and replacing it with blood of the proper type now saves the lives of these children.

Good nutrition and prenatal care from a competent physician are the best prescription for an expectant mother.

Early discovery still is the best guarantee of a cure for cancer. Breast self-examination by women has caught many cancers before they had time to spread. Cancer of the cervix in women over 40 can be virtually eliminated if they all would have physical examinations each year.

Better operative techniques in orthopedic surgery have reduced permanent crippling, especially in injuries of the hand and hip.

PLASTIC SURGERY can repair harelips, cleft palates and facial injuries so they hardly can be noticed.

Every year improvements are made in artificial hands, arms and legs. They look and move more naturally and can accomplish more tasks in a lifelike manner.

We have seen, too, the rise of industrial and preventive medicine and consequent saving of thousands of lives in our factories, mines and homes.

Last year our public health experts were warned of a flu epidemic sweeping Asia. The U.S. public health experts called for specimens, got them, tested them, found them to be a new type virus. Our virologists were put to work and produced a vaccine before the epidemic hit this country.

Result: While a fairly large number got the disease, it had been robbed of its impact.

WE KNOW TODAY THAT overweight and smoking are two of the dangers for many of our citizens. This is especially true in diabetes, coronary artery disease, high blood pressure, atherosclerosis or circulatory ailments.

And while the evidence so far is largely statistical, there is not much doubt that excessive cigarette smoking increases the danger of lung cancer considerably.

TV today has shown surgical operations in color to medical groups more than 150 miles away. A specimen has been presented to the watching groups and the diagnosis of the disease made by one of the doctors at a distance.

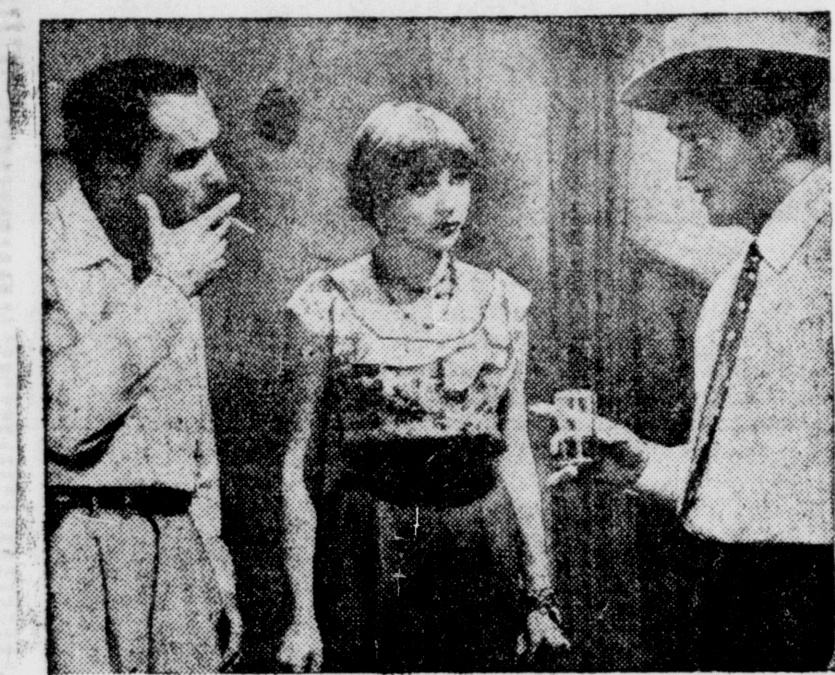

This today is a showmanship and professional gimmick. Tomorrow it will be routine when the advice of a top specialist is wanted in a perplexing case.

WHERE DO WE GO from here? Major problems, of course, are heart, cancer, mental illness and accidents. The last is chiefly up to us.

Major roles for the scientist probably are in the fields of virus research and in mental illness. But be assured of these facts: The best hospitals in the world are in America.

The best medical schools in the world no longer are in Vienna or Germany they are here in the U.S.

The best medicine in all the world is practiced in this country. (End of Series)

SOME CAME RUNNING — Frank Sinatra, Shirley MacLaine and Dean Martin star in the film "Some Came Running," adapted from James Jones' novel of the same name. The drama of a group of people in a small American town will be shown here Sunday through next Thursday.

Our Economic Strength Tied to Europe
It's Your Pocketbook

By FAYE HENLE
NEW Staff Writer

One of the top business news stories is the announcement that 10 nations of western Europe have made their own money somewhat more freely convertible into our dollars and the currencies of other lands.

You may wonder, as I did, what possible effect this can have on you—upon your pocketbook.

Many people are asking this question. Varied answers are being given.

I'll side with those who recognize that this can make coins jingle in our pockets only if we learn for the first time in more than a decade to be really competitive in world markets.

Sure, we'll be able to sell a couple of dry martinis packaged in plastic pouches—but will we be able to sell them at a price that will bring reorders and more reorders?

A GLOOMY REMARK I gleaned in attempting to probe the significance of the currency story was the hint that Europe's money is becoming more stabilized — is ours?

Yet, on the brighter side, remember that 80 per cent of our exports currently consist of fuel, machinery and industrial materials. To the extent that we can sell more of these products abroad and further help the European nations and Great Britain toward prosperity, the more money they will be able to spend for our products when the eventual day of complete currency convertibility comes.

At such time we can expect to feel the favorable effects from this preliminary move toward freer world trade provided we are smart enough not to price our products out of the world markets.

For the present, as I see it, there will be no immediate effect from currency convertibility upon your personal finances.

Despite all that you may read about Europe's money maneuvers, will determine how large or how small our gains will be from the new rules in the foreign money market.

LIKE YOU AND ME — Handling her household chores much the same as any other housewife, Mrs. Beatrice K. Corliss doesn't look the part of a top municipal official. Mrs. Corliss, however, is the mayor of Gloucester, Mass. She's shown in kitchen of her home.

Weapon's Future Is Uncertain

A-Missile In Mass Production

SANTA MONICA, Calif. (AP)—America is mass-producing one of its most reliable missiles in a form so simple that crew can fire them in volley on 11-minute notice, even from mobile bases. The missile is the 1,100-mile Thor, a combat-ready weapon that also is a workhorse in space research. It can carry a nuclear warhead known as the "County-buster" and is stockpiled at bases in this country and abroad. But because of its limited range the future of the Thor is uncertain. This picture emerged today after the first press tour of Thor production and testing facilities here and in Sacramento, Calif. Newsmen Wednesday saw parts of more than a dozen Thors on an assembly line at the Douglas Aircraft plant here and 17 finished missiles in a storage area. At Sacramento they saw a demonstration that a hangared Thor can be made ready to launch by quickly trained crews 11 minutes after the order to fire. At the factory, officials showed how the Thor and its launching equipment can be packaged for airlift to any part of the world. At the Sacramento site, they demonstrated how a squadron of Thors can be hauled from a landing strip to a hastily rigged launch site. No permanent concrete emplacements are necessary—only a metal ring on the ground for the missile's tail to rest on while it is being fueled. The missile and its erecting mechanism, its control room, and electrical generators are all on wheels. The missile is ready for use now, Air Force Brig. Gen. Donald Coupland told newsmen, but that doesn't mean it's operational. There are two other factors. First, enough crews must be trained to use them. American and British crews are undergoing training now at Vandenberg Air Force Base, Calif. Second, they must have a target within reach of Thor bases in the United States. Thor bases in Britain have not been announced as operational.

Dispute Idles 350 Workers In Warren

WARREN, Ohio (AP) — Some 350 workers were idle today in a dispute over closing of a plant entrance at Republic Steel Corp.'s coke plant here. The walkout started Tuesday. A spokesman for the United Steelworkers Local 1375 claimed Wednesday that workers were locked out. The entrance to the coke plant was locked, he said, and employees could only enter through the blast furnace department's gate a considerable distance away. A Republic statement said the dispute involved a "plant entrance which was set up on an emergency basis as a result of the recent flood." The union claimed the gate was closed before the flood.

Wheeling Man Named County Scout Official

LISBON — Robert F. Beck, executive head, announced today that a district scout executive has been employed for Columbiana Council, Boy Scouts of America. He is Kenneth Mugridge of Wheeling, W. Va. Mugridge will be assigned to the Cherokee District (southern half of Columbiana County, Chester and Newell, W. Va.) and will start work Monday, Feb. 16. He is expected to live in East Liverpool. Mugridge is a graduate of Penn State College. A former educator, he entered professional scouting in 1942. He is married and has three children, two boys and a girl. Mugridge is presently employed by the Huroquois Council at Wheeling, W. Va.

Cub Scout Saves Girl From Drowning

TOLEDO, Ohio (AP) — Using a branch chopped from a tree with his hatchet, a 10-year-old Cub Scout pulled a little girl to safety from ice-covered Swan Creek Wednesday night. Janet Rospert, 9, was reported in good condition at Maumee Valley Hospital suffering from exposure. She said she broke through the ice while sliding. Richard Clay Dicken Jr., who was playing with two other boys nearby was attracted by her screams. He sent his playmates scurrying for help. He told Janet, his classmate in the fourth grade, to hold onto the edge of the hole through which she had fallen. The water is four to six feet deep. While Janet hung, Richard—who had a small hatchet with him—chopped a branch from a tree. He held it out and pulled her to safety across the ice. By the time the girl reached solid ground her mother, Mildred, had arrived with neighbors. They called an ambulance.

Household Hints

Substitute a cup of grapefruit juice for a cup of the water called for when you are making up a package of lemon-flavored gelatin dessert. Count on obtaining one-quarter cup liquid from a three-ounce can of chopped broiled mushrooms. The liquid may be used in a soup or a sauce.

DiSalle Drafts Plan To Lure Industries

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP)—Gov. Michael V. DiSalle said he is not considering spending state money to attract industry to Ohio. But he says he wants to make sure that industries are given all the information and encouragement they need to locate in this state. To implement this plan of action, he told newsmen Wednesday, he plans a mid-February meeting with John Bush, director of commerce and representatives of local government, management, labor utilities and college economics departments. "All the information is available somewhere," the governor said, "it simply is a matter of pulling it together—or being certain of where we can find it when it's needed." The governor announced he will hold a Cabinet meeting at 10 a.m. tomorrow, and that it will be open to newsmen. He also reported that Gov. and Mrs. Robert Meyer of New Jersey will be his house guests over the weekend. In four or five weeks, Gov. Pat Brown of California also will stop off at the DiSalle mansion on a trip to Washington. Both Meyer and Brown are Democrats, as is DiSalle.

LISBON — Four motorists forfeited a total of $95 in bonds in Mayor John Todd's court Wednesday when they failed to appear for hearings. Forfeiting bonds were: Frank Dutcher, 28, of Rogers, $50, fictitious license plates. William C. Smythe, 44, of Bellevue, Pa., and Duane Cable, 34, of Pittsburgh, each $10, passing on a yellow line. Ernest H. Hilliard of Cleveland, $25, driving an unsafe vehicle.

Willie McCovey Latest 'Find' Of Talent-Rich San Francisco

NEW YORK (AP) — The accent won't be on rookies in the San Francisco Giants training camp this year. There will be only a handful present.

The reason is obvious. Practically all the good ones were brought up last year. And what a collection, Orlando Cepeda, who walked off with rookie of the year honors: Willie Kirkland, Bob Schmidt, Leon Wagner, Felipe Alou and Andre Rodgers.

All signs point to still another outstanding prospect this season. He is Willie McCovey, a tall, wiry first baseman who is said to be a better hitter than all of last year's rookies with the possible exception of Cepeda.

Willie is the boy the Giants have been waiting to spring on the unsuspecting baseball public for several years. A two-year stay in the service interrupted their plans.

Last year, playing triple A ball for the first time, McCovey rapped Pacific Coast League pitching to the tune of .319. His extra base output included 37 doubles, 10 triples and 14 home runs. In addition, he drove in 89 runs. He is said to be exceedingly fast for a big man and can handle that glove.

Only three new pitchers will be in camp. They are right-handers Dom Zanni and Frank Funk and left-hander John Fitzgerald.

Funk is given the best chance to win a place on the staff, most likely as a relief specialist. He won 17 and lost seven at Corpus Christi but it was his workhorse tendencies that impressed the Giant brass. He appeared in 48 games, pitched 149 innings and posted a 2.60 earned run average. Zanni was 14-11 at Phoenix.

Marshall Renfro, an outfielder; Ben Valenzuela and Jose Pagan, infielders; and catchers Roger MacCardell and Al Steigltz, complete the freshman squad.

Next: Baltimore Orioles.

The United High faculty basketball team defeated the United Booster Club cagers 36-35 in a contest played last night at United. In the preliminary John Kozar's Mario's Pizza Kitchen girls' team won over the Steubenville Trotters 23-16.

Dave Light had 11 points for the United faculty while Jim Coach hooped 14 for the Boosters.

Between 400 and 500 people attended the doubleheader whose proceeds will be used for athletic equipment at United.

55-And-Over Brigade to Vie In Golf Event

DUNEDIN, Fla. (AP) — The 55-and-over brigade in the National Professional Golfers' Assn. Senior Championship returns for its second round today, with its job cut out for it to remain in title contention.

The 50-54 age group set a sizzling pace Wednesday, with nine contestants bettering par compared with only two in the first round of the 55-and-over detachment.

Topping the field in the first round was Jack Isaacs of Langley (Va.) Air Force Base with a six-under-par 66, one stroke over the course record and one stroke ahead of Dick Metz of Ft. Worth, Tex.

Three other players broke 70 over the 6,589-yard par 72 PGA national course. Charley Burkart of Cedar Rapids, Iowa, had a 68. Leland Gibson of Kansas City and Al Huske of Glenelg, Ill., had 69s.

The sub-par scores put the defending champion, Gene Sarazen, on a spot. Sarazen had a 73 for his first round and must have a sharp round today to remain within striking distance of the leaders.

The only par-breakers in the 55 and over group were Ock Willovet of Dayton, with 70 and B.M. Goldbeck of Mt. Kisco, N. Y., with 71. Al Watrous three times a champion virtually shot his way out of contention with an opening round 77.

Hermosillo, Mexico — Lauro Salas, 129, Los Angeles knocked out Chango Ceballos 130 Hermosillo 6.

Tokyo — Isami Ikeyama, Japan, outpointed Jejiro Kazama, Japan 10. Flyweights.

Berra Takes Salary Slash

Unrest Sweeps World's Champions

NEW YORK (AP) — Now that Yogi Berra has given in, apparently accepting his second salary cut in two seasons, will the rest of the New York Yankees fall in line?

There's supposed to be all sorts of unrest among the world champs, who figure such champs shouldn't be expected to accept a decrease in salary.

Mickey Mantle, Gil McDougald, and Whitey Ford, to name the big guys are a bit miffed. So's 21-game winner Bob Turley although the pitching hero of the World Series has been offered a raise. Trouble is, it isn't exactly the hike Turley had in mind.

Berra was among the quasi-holdouts until Wednesday. Then, within 24 hours after Manager Casey Stengel sided with the front office and chewed his players a bit for lack of hustle and excessive night life, Yogi was back knocking on Roy Hamer's door.

A 45-minute conference ended Wednesday with Berra agreeing to a contract believed to call for $42,500, a $2,500 cut from last year's salary which in turn was about $5000 below the $50 or so he picked up in 1957.

Yogi 38, and veteran outfielder Hank Bauer are the only Yankees whose signing have been announced. Bauer signed last week, for somewhere around $25,000. That represented one of the token raises the Yankees hope to get away with.

Chicago Cubs' Profits Show Big Increase

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs' profits jumped from a dollar a day average in 1957 to $199,000 in 1958.

An increase of 309,000 in home attendance largely was responsible for the profit rise. The turnstiles clicked to the tune of 979,000 as the Cubs wound up in a tie for fifth place, their highest finish since 1952.

Patterson, Johansson Sign Today

NEW YORK (AP)—Floyd Patterson, the almost forgotten heavyweight champion, and Ingemar Johansson, pride of Sweden, sign for a title fight today.

There's many a slip 'twixt the lip and the cup especially where Cus d'Amato, Patterson's manager, is concerned. But the best inside information, including indirect quotes from D'Amato himself indicated that Patterson would come out of hiding around 12:30 p.m. EST today and join with Johansson in the contract signing ceremonies.

Lawyers have been huddling ever since the curly-haired, handsome fistic idol of Sweden arrived last Friday. The word is they have ironed out all of the details for Patterson's fourth title defense since he knocked out Archie Moore Nov. 30, 1956 for the right to wear the crown vacated by Rocky Marciano.

Best guess is that Patterson will be guaranteed $300,000 as against 40 per cent of the net receipts while Johansson will get $100,000 or 20 per cent.

Salem On Road Friday At Liverpool

Potters Hold 1-12 Showing

Locals Haven't Won At EL In 11 Seasons

The Salem High Quakers will take to the road for the last time in regular season play Friday night when they travel to East Liverpool to meet the Potters on the Memorial Auditorium floor.

The Quakers have not beaten East Liverpool in Memorial Auditorium in 11 years. The last Salem win over EL on that floor was on Jan. 9, 1948 when the locals emerged with a 31-25 triumph. Since then every Quaker win has been here at home over the Potters. Liverpool holds a 22-13 edge since 1932.

John Karaffa's team is experiencing its worst season in history. The club has won but one game and has lost 12 including the last nine in succession. Their only win was a 60-56 decision over Wellsville.

Have Met Common Foes

The Quakers and their hosts have played four common foes. Salem beat Warren 66-45 while Liverpool lost to the Panthers 58-56. The Potters beat Wellsville by four but the locals did so 106-51.

Salem romped over Youngstown South 84-39 last Tuesday whereas South defeated the Potters 72-64 two weeks ago.

Last Tuesday Liverpool got drubbed 68-39 by Youngstown East, a club Salem downed 79-48.

Liverpool has lost also to Farrell, Pa. 54-31, Alliance 46-45, Canton McKinley 74-50, Mansfield 73-69, Columbus East 73-44 Weirton, W. Va. 50-38, Toronto 48-45, Midland, Pa. 72-35 and Steubenville Central 54-48.

Karaffa utilizes seven men to pick his starting lineup. The list includes one senior, three juniors and three sophomores.

The guards are usually 5-10 Ken Cunningham and 5-6 Ron Clark while the center is 6-5 Ray Bigelow or 6-8 Bob Beatty. The forwards are 5-9 Ken Miller and 5-11 Bob Mackall or 6-0 Craig Burbick. Salem's starting lineup will be the same as it was in the South victory. Woody Deitch and Clyde Marks will hold down forward posts with Lou Slaby at center and Dan Krichbaum and Dave Hunter at the guards.

The junior varsity game will begin at 7 p.m.

Pep Announces He Will Quit Boxing

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Little Willie Pep, of the spidery legs and two featherweight titles, has decided to quit boxing. "I decided it would be foolish to continue," he said.

Pep, 36, has been down before but not out. He lost his featherweight title in 1930 when Sandy Saddler defeated him in their second title match.

Sports writers have predicted Pep's retirement ever since but the scrappy ex-shoeshine boy from Hartford refused to quit.

Monday night Pep was beaten by Sonny Leon in a fight at Caracas, Venezuela. Wednesday night Pep stopped by to see Hartford Courant Sports Editor Bill Lee, who has followed his career ever since it started.

"I did a lot of thinking," after the Caracas fight, Pep told Lee, "and decided it would be foolish to continue."

Rams' Draft Choice May Leave School

LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Los Angeles Rams have heard reports that their No. 1 draft choice halfback Dick Bass of College of the Pacific, intends to quit school and become eligible for the 1959 National Football League season.

"This is news to me," said Coach Sid Gillman of the Rams. "As far as we are concerned, we hope Bass decides to play another year of college football. The added experience would be good for him. When we selected him in December as a future choice, we had in mind only that he would be available for 1960, not before."

Kentucky Coach Will Seek 600th Victory of Career

By The Associated Press

Adolph Rupp who gets what he goes after 85 per cent of the time, tries for victory No. 600 at Kentucky tonight and another milestone in his brilliant 29-year career as a college basketball coach.

The 57-year-old Baron has coached 703 games, all as head man of the Wildcats. His 599-104 record figures out to a winning percentage of .853 — by far the best of any coach over a period of years at a major school.

Georgia's Bulldogs form the opposition in the game at Lexington that can advance Rupp to a 600 club inhabited by only three other coaches — Ed Diddle of Western Kentucky, Hank Iba of Oklahoma State and Eddie Adams of Texas Southern.

The Baron comes up to the milestone at an absolute peak with a team that ranks No. 1 in the nation with a 15-1 record and looks capable of defending the unprecedented fourth national collegiate title Rupp and the 'Cats bagged last season.

Rated teams Bradley, No. 9, Seattle, No. 13 and St. Bonaventure No. 16 fattened their records in features of Wednesday's program.

Bradley holding on for another crack at Cincinnati in the Missouri Valley Conference race, made it 13-2 with a 68-55 whipping of Toledo as Dean Smith scored 21 points. Seattle, 13-2 against collegiate competition, spilled San Francisco 80-62 and St. Bonaventure, which lost its nine-game unbeaten string last Saturday, started a new one with a 74-56 decision over St. Francis (N.Y.). It was St. Francis' 11th straight loss.

Ken Fairfield and sophomore star Tom Stith combined for 47 points for the Bonnies, with Fairfield netting 28.

Surprising Michigan got 22 points apiece from John Tidwell and M. C. Burton in rolling to its 10th triumph in 12 tries, 68-63 over Washington of St. Louis, Dayton, now 11-4, downed Canisius 68-51. Xavier of Ohio downed Georgetown (DC) 70-62.

In the East All-America Don Hennon scored 22 points and three Pitt teammates joined him in double figures for an 84-62 romp over Geneva (Pa). Fordham's 10th victory in 13 games was a 93-67 walling of Wagner.

Soviet Cagers Beat Americans

Russians Elated By 62-37 Victory

SANTIAGO, Chile (AP) — The Soviet Union finally has caught up with the United States in basketball.

For the first time, a Soviet team has beaten the Americans at the game which was originated in the United States.

It happened Wednesday night when the Russians walloped the Americans 62-37 in the game that generally was expected to decide the championship of the World Basketball Tourneys.

The Russians were elated by the victory.

"This victory will live in our memories for a long time," said Alexandri Gomelski, one of the Soviet coaches. "Our defense kept those American snipers No. 12 and 13 (Jerry Vayda and Dick Welsh) from having time to shoot. Therefore they couldn't score as they usually do."

The Air Force All Stars, representing the United States, had been unimpressive in maintaining a perfect record through the preliminary round robin and their first three games of the final round robin championship play. Wednesday night they looked even worse as they bowed to the tall Russians.

The Soviet victory meant they can clinch the championship by playing Nationalist China Friday night. Even if they lose to the Chinese, who have not won a game, they would take the title on the basis of goal average. Wednesday night's victory was their fifth in as many starts. All other teams have lost at least one game. The U.S. plays Chile tonight and dangerous Brazil Friday.

However, the Russians have said they will not play the Chinese because of political reasons. If they don't they will forfeit all previous games.

In that event the tournament winner probably will be decided when the U.S. plays Brazil. Brazil matched the Americans' 3-1 record Wednesday night by beating Puerto Rico 99-71.

Rangers Thumped By Black Hawks 7-1

By The Associated Press

The Chicago Black Hawks, who are upsetting all pre-season calculations in the National Hockey League, again are alone in second place today chiefly because they have defeated the New York Rangers in key games.

The Hawks thumped the Rangers 7-1 on the New Yorkers' recent road trip and Wednesday night they scored a 3-1 decision on Madison Square Garden ice. The victory gave the Hawks a two-point margin over the Rangers.

Second-period goals by Pierre Pilote and Eddie Litzenberger sealed Chicago's triumph. New York had taken a 1-0 lead in the first period on goal by Camille Henry. Chicago added a goal by Ted Lindsay in the third period.

Salem Grade Teams Post Cage Wins

Salem's eighth grade cagers along with their seventh grade colleagues both posted wins yesterday over respective Alliance State St. clubs in a doubleheader played at Salem.

Dick Ehrhart tossed in 16 points for the winners in the eighth grade's 36-31 win while Rick Platt had six. Tom Lodge had five for Salem while Ray Rogers and Fred Schramm had four each and King one.

Alliance's eighth grade team had one cager 6-3 and another 6-2. The latter, Lou Tosha, was high for the young Aviators with 14. Salem trailed 18-17 at the half but were in front 26-25 after three frames.

Bink Washington along with Dan Franks and Anderson were too much for Alliance's seventh graders as the locals posted an overwhelming 50-12 win. Salem led 8-0 at the quarter, 24-3 at the half and 42-5 after three quarters.

Washington canned 14 while Franks and Anderson had 10 each. Huber had six and Nollner and Cozad four each for Salem while Carter had two.

Bill Crider had 11 of the losers' points.

Louisville, Ky. — Ralph (Tiger) Jones, 156½, Yonkers N. Y. outpointed Joey Giardello 162½ Philadelphia 10.

Hawks Lose To Celtics In Overtime

BOSTON (AP) — The St. Louis Hawks were greeted by a shower of eggs Wednesday night as they took the floor for their National Basketball Assn. game with the Boston Celtics.

The demonstration, apparently caused by reports that fans pelted Boston Coach Red Auerbach with beer, towels and cups in St. Louis last week, brought a public apology from Celtics owner Walter Brown.

The Celtics, cheered on by a crowd of 9,420, went on to defeat the defending NBA champions 120-111 in overtime.

Tom Gola, Guy Rodgers and Woody Sauldsberry carried the Philadelphia Warriors to a 99-94 victory over the Cincinnati Royals and Jim Krebs scored three points in the last 30 seconds to give Minneapolis a 112-109 triumph over Syracuse in other NBA action. Sauldsberry scored three straight baskets to open the second half and Gola and Rodgers helped it along to 82-62 after three quarters. Gola led all scorers with 26 points, Archie Dees paced the Royals with 14.

Dolph Schayes brought Syracuse to a 109-all tie with 43 seconds remaining. Krebs hit with a push-shot 13 seconds later and wrapped it up with a foul with four seconds to go.

Elgin Baylor led Minneapolis with 38 points and Schayes had 34. Gene Conley scored six of his 10 points in the overtime session to lead the Boston attack. Bob Pettit scored 40 points for St. Louis. Frank Ramsey's 30 points paced the Celtics.

Funds for Post-Flood Studies In Ohio Valley Are Released

EAST LIVERPOOL (AP) — The U.S. Army Engineers Wednesday released $155,000 for post flood studies throughout the Ohio Valley. Brig. Gen. W. W. Lapsley, Ohio River division engineer, announced the action. He said $100,000 will be expended in the state by district offices in Pittsburgh, Huntington, W. Va., and Louisville.

The general said the work will include the collection of damage estimates, hydrologic information and other engineering data of value in flood control studies.

Studies already are being made by the Corps of Engineers in the Scioto River basin, in the Kokoing River basin at Mount Vernon, and in other areas of Ohio.

Projects resulting from the studies will supplement the Army Engineers' existing projects such as Delaware Reservoir above Columbus, the 14 reservoirs in the Muskingum basin, and Berlin and Mosquito Creek reservoirs above Warren and Youngstown, Ohio.

Gen. Lapsley said the value of such projects is emphasized by the fact that damages of more than 70 million dollars were prevented in the recent flood.

The general said law authorizes the Corps of Engineers to repair or restore any flood control works destroyed or threatened without regard to ownership or date of construction.

The engineers will consider promptly any requests from local interests for such work, he added. Usually, such work is undertaken by the corps when it is beyond the resources of local communities.

In Ohio, it might apply to such communities as Columbus, Mount Vernon, Newark and Chillicothe, he added.

Inside Labor

By Victor Riesel

On a clear night, if you're one of the few left who look earthwards, you can see the rackets' (sic) red glare—as hundreds of thousands of dollars worth of high-powered construction machinery is sent bursting in air by the mobs' bombs. Almost unnoticed except by those in earshot of the crackling explosives and flames, there is an industrial war by night spreading across the land. In recent months $30,000 cranes, sides of buildings, newly laid lengths of pavement, cars and intricate equipment have been blistered. Noise of the detonations has been heard in Missouri, Iowa, Nebraska and Kansas.

All this is documented. Some of it is in the live files of the McClellan racket-busting committee. Some of the evidence is in reports and briefings I received while mingling for two days with members of the Associated General Contractors—the men who build the dams for America's power, the roads for America's travel and the complex projects for America's prosperity.

IN ALL MY TALKS I heard rare criticism of honest unionism. But there was bitterness. There was wonderment that no force could stop the mob force used by hoods who had taken control of the type of union now being exposed and about to be exposed by Sen. McClellan and Counselor Bob Kennedy's committeemen.

There was the report of the rapping by dynamite of the side of a building in which contractors were meeting.

There was the report of dynamite blasts smashing the power units of a crawler and tractor—cost $25,000—belonging to the Ira Van Buskirk and Sons Co. of Harwarden, Iowa. The machinery was being used on an interstate highway project.

There were reports of earlier blasts of power draglines, construction equipment, concrete mixers, trenchers, cranes and paving machines in Midwest states.

I found the contractors especially disturbed by the "Jensen Case." This has been a sort of hundred days war.

Early last September the Jensen Co. of Des Moines was about to start on a federal contract to build a highway bridge across the Platte River, near the town of Bellevue, Neb. This story may be known to the good people of Omaha, 10 miles away. But despite the rumbling of dynamite, the noise never hit the east or west coasts.

THE JENSEN CO. is a non-union outfit. That is one issue. Destruction by vandals of the company's property, attacks on its officials and blasting of its home office weave into the equally fundamental issue of terror in the image of European Fascism.

For, what else could a loud explosion on the night of Sept. 4 have meant? The morning after the big noise, company officials found their $30,000 crane twisted inside itself.

Damage—$108,000.

As the following weeks telescoped themselves, rocks were heaved at company executives. Auto windshield were smashed. Sand was poured into gas tanks. Roads were blocked by logs. A company official was pursued in an 80-mile-an-hour chase.

But the authorities could do little. The sheriff kept order when he could. But there were no federal laws to punish any one, oddly enough, for terror against the project paid for by federal funds.

A LAW which would have made such tactics a national violation died in the Senate last year. Thus the Justice Dept. couldn't move in or order in the FBI.

Only the McClellan committee was left. Now it that even this may not be with us long. There is labor pressure to make the evenly balanced committee a Democratic controlled one. This could be done by the appointment of a Democrat to the seat of Ex-Sen. Irving Ives.

If this happens, Sen. McClellan will reign. That is what he has told his friends. He does not believe the committee should be controlled by either party.

If he tosses in the gavel, Bob Kennedy will resign too. Without this team, the committee will founder and run up on the legislative reefs. For with the slim crusader from Boston will go many of his key probers.

Racket busting would be over for a while. But not the rackets' red glare—stirring up huge, dancing shadows to mock the people everywhere.

GO TO CHURCH SUNDAY

Stuffed Mushrooms

Ingredients: 1 pound medium sized mushrooms, 4 tablespoons butter or margarine, 2 teaspoons lemon juice, 1 can (4½ ounces) deviled ham, 1-3 cup fine dry bread crumbs, 1 teaspoon dried crumbled (instant) onion.

Method: Wipe mushroom caps and stems with damp cloth; detach caps. Chop stems fine. Melt butter in 9- or 10-inch skillet; add caps, and cook quickly until lightly browned; remove caps. Add chopped stems to skillet and cook quickly, stirring, for 3 to 5 minutes. Stir in lemon juice, deviled ham, bread crumbs and onion. Fill stuffing into mushroom cap cavities; place in shallow baking pan. Bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven 15 to 20 minutes or until heated through. Makes 6 to 8 servings.

When you are adding dry mustard to a salad dressing, stir it into a tiny bit of water and allow it to stand about 10 minutes to mellow before adding it to the other ingredients.

Luscious Mocha Valentine Pie

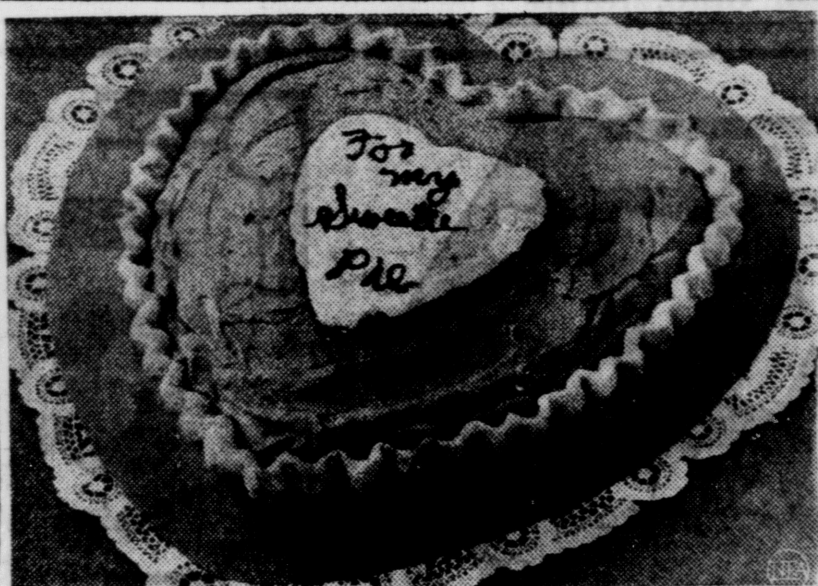

A luscious mocha filling for a heart-shaped pie results in a delightful Valentine's Day surprise dessert. Incidentally, mocha is a very popular flavor with men.

For the message, use a pastry tube. Or else use heavy writing paper formed into a cone, or use a cone-shaped paper drinking cup. Snip off a little of the tip, leaving a 1/4-inch opening. Fill one with melted semi-sweet chocolate morsels slightly cooled and for c through cone to write message.

One 6-ounce package (1 cup) semi-sweet chocolate morsels, one 2-ounce package cream cheese, softened; 1/2 cup plus 2 tablespoons firmly packed brown sugar, 2 tablespoons instant coffee, 1/4 teaspoon salt, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 2 eggs, separated; 1 cup heavy cream whipped; one 8-inch baked heart-shaped pastry shell.

Melt semi-sweet chocolate morsels over hot (not boiling) water. Remove from heat; cool 10 minutes. Combine and blend in mixing bowl, cream cheese, 6 tablespoons of the sugar, instant coffee, salt and vanilla. Beat in one egg yolk at a time, stir in melted semi-sweet morsels. Beat egg whites until fluffy but not dry. Gradually add remaining 4 tablespoons sugar; beat until stiff. Fold into chocolate mixture. Fold in whipped cream.

Chill until firm. To garnish pie, spread evenly inside outline. Force additional melted semi-sweet chocolate morsels through narrow opening of cake decorator or paper cornucopia to write appropriate sentiment. Note: To bake heart-shaped pastry shell, use 8 x 11 1/2-inch heart-shaped layer cake pan,

Ham Loaf Deluxe

Ingredients: 2 cups finely ground leftover baked ham (packed down), 1/2 pound (1 cup) ground raw veal, 1/4 cup packaged cornflake crumbs, 2 medium-sized eggs (slightly beaten), 1 small finely-grated onion (pulp and juice), 1/4 cup minced parsley, pepper, Cranberry Sauce, 6 drained canned cling peach halves, parsley sprigs.

Method: Mix together the ham, veal, cornflake crumbs, eggs, onion parsley and pepper to taste. (Usually the ham adds enough salt.) Mix in 1/2 cup liquid from the warm Cranberry Sauce. Pack down into buttered heat-resistant glass loaf pan (1-quart size or about 8 by 4 by 3 inches); bake in moderate (375 degrees) oven 1 hour.

Fill peach cavities with warm Cranberry Sauce; about 15 minutes before loaf is baked, place peaches in shallow pan in oven to heat. Loosen ham loaf from sides of pan; turn out on serving platter. Surround with warm peaches; garnish with parsley.

Makes 6 servings. Ham loaf should be cut into thick slices.

Cranberry Sauce: Stir 1 cup sugar and 1 cup water together in a medium-sized saucepan over low heat until sugar dissolves; boil 5 minutes. Add 2 cups cranberries; boil until all berries pop—5 minutes or so. Drain off 1/2 cup liquid for ham loaf; keep remaining sauce in a warm place for peach stuffing and extra service.

Homemade Doughnuts Are Tender, Flavorful

What are round, square, twisted or shaped like a life saver and take to coffee, like a duck takes to water? They're doughnuts, of course. Of all the varieties, one of the most popular is the sugary light heated yeast-raised doughnut with the hole in the center.

Tuna-Cheesewich

Ingredients: 1 can (7 ounces) tuna, 1/2 cup finely diced celery, 2 whole canned pimientos (drained and diced), 1/4 cup mayonnaise, 2 teaspoons lemon juice, salt, pepper, sliced bread, butter or margarine, sliced cheddar cheese, slice tomatoes.

Method: Flake and mix tuna (including oil in can) with celery, pimientos, mayonnaise, lemon juice and salt and pepper to taste. Spread on sliced buttered light toast.

Top with sliced cheese, making sure edges of bread are covered (or they will burn); top with tomato slices; sprinkle tomato with salt. Broil until heated through. Makes 6 to 8 sandwich slices.

SOUND INTO SIGHT — Seated alongside his bed in Rome, the Rev. Mauro Maria Santolini works on a "sound painting." The unusual water colors of the Benedictine monk are semi-abstracts representing a translation of the sounds, chords and harmonies of liturgical music.

This shape is a rather new innovation discovered by a sea captain who found they cooked through better when the center was removed. And if you're a dunker they're easier to hold, too.

Dunker or no, here's how to make light and tender yeast-raised doughnuts for serving with meals or with coffee any time of day.

Raised Doughnuts

1 1/4 cups milk, 1/4 cup sugar, 2 teaspoons salt, 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg, 2 tablespoons butter 1/4 cup warm, not hot, water (lukewarm for compressed yeast) 2 packages of cakes yeast, active dry or compressed, 3 eggs, beaten, 6 cups sifted enriched flour.

Scald milk. Remove from heat and stir in sugar salt and nutmeg and butter; cool to lukewarm. Measure water into bowl (warm, not hot, water for active dry yeast; lukewarm for compressed yeast).

Sprinkle or crumble in yeast. Stir until dissolved. Add lukewarm milk mixture. Stir in well-beaten eggs and half the flour (3 cups); beat until smooth. Cover and let rise in a warm place, free from draft until yeast mixture more than doubled in bulk (about 30 minutes).

Stir down and beat in remaining 3 cups of flour. Turn dough out on lightly floured board; knead lightly to shape into smooth ball. Divide dough. Roll each half into a circle 1/2-inch thick. Cut with doughnut cutter and place on baking sheets.

Cover with clean towel and let rise in warm place free from draft until double in bulk, about 30 minutes. Fry in deep hot fat 365 degrees F., until golden brown, turning once.

Creamy Rice

Ingredients: 1 1/2 cups soft-cooked rice, 1 jar (5 ounces) strained orange pineapple baby-food dessert, 1/2 cup heavy cream, 1/2 cup shredded coconut (toasted).

Method: Fold together the rice and pineapple dessert. Whip cream until as thick as mayonnaise; fold in; chill. Just before serving, fold in two-thirds of the toasted coconut; spoon into sherbet glasses or other dessert dishes; garnish with remaining toasted coconut. Makes 4 to 6 servings.

Note: To toast coconut, spread it out in a thin layer in a jelly-roll-type pan; bake in moderate (350 degrees) oven, stirring or shaking pan occasionally, until toasted a light brown—about 10 minutes.

Asparagus Casserole

An asparagus casserole is a sure-fire crowd-pleaser for the family meal or buffet entertaining.

You may wish to substitute leftover turkey or tuna for variety. No matter how you prepare it, asparagus casserole will reflect your ability as a competent hostess.

Chicken and Asparagus Casserole
2 lb. cooked asparagus, 2 cups medium white sauce, 2 cups thickly sliced chicken, 2 tablespoons lemon juice, 2 tablespoons Worcestershire sauce, 1/2 cup Parmesan cheese, 1/2 cup cereal flakes.

Grease shallow 2 quart casserole. Prepare and cook 2 lb. asparagus. Prepare 2 cups medium white sauce and add 2 tablespoons lemon juice and 2 tablespoon Worcestershire sauce. Arrange in casserole with 2 cups thickly sliced chicken.

Place drained asparagus on chicken and cover with 1/2 cup Parmesan cheese. Cover this with 1/2 cup cereal flakes. Bake in medium oven 20 to 25 minutes or until topping is lightly browned.

Household Hints

When a recipe tells you to bake custards in a water bath, put the custard cups in a deep baking pan and pour water that has just boiled into the pan so that it reaches about 1 inch from the top of the cups.

Green cabbage, shredded paper-thin and mixed with well-seasoned mayonnaise, makes delicious and nutritious sandwiches to serve with a platter of cold meats.
